the reunion activities

mass in the chapel

On Thursday 25th November 2004, the Fatima chapel warmly welcomed back the Class of '84. The mass was celebrated by none other than Father Gervais Girod. Fr. Girod's sermon took us back and reminded us of the important role that we play as adults and more importantly, as parents. The mass proved inspirational to all who attended and was the perfect way to start the reunion.

On Friday 26th November, it was time to go back to that ole favourite watering hole, Pelican Inn, for the boys to get together, have some drinks, good food and gape at some drop dead gorgeous (or so they seemed after six drinks, you be the judge) Carib Girls. The night was oh-so-memorable for the "coming out" of Ian Salandy to Karim Rahaman (you had to be there!) Don't worry Ian, we all know that it was your sister. Karim however, was totally fooled!

Shiva Manraj, lucky man, won a hamper full of fine liquor and graciously shared his bottle of Johnny Walker Black with the boys...now dat is a true partner!

the dinner

“It was wonderful to see the old faces, and though we have aged, somehow the teachers, twenty years later, looked the same!”

On Saturday 27th November, the school hall was the venue for the grand finale of the reunion. The hall was beautifully transformed from the ole sweat box into a wonderfully decorated, cool dining area, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chin Cheong.

It was wonderful to see the old faces, and though we have aged, somehow the teachers twenty years later looked the same! Sixteen of our teachers were able to attend. It was a joy to chat with them so openly without the fear of detention or a good cut arse! The teachers who came were: Clive Pantin, John Romero, Clive John, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Garcia, Alloy Lee Ha, Fenrick De Silva, Christian Harrigan, Mervin Achille, Harry Ramdass (who did not miss the Boys Lime, naturally), Sherry Ann Ahwai Chung, Fr. Gervais Girod, Glen Roach, Ray Holman, Myrtle Cumberbatch, Marion Hubbard, Diane Persaud, Fr. Gregory Augustus and the current principal, Anthony Garcia. A special thanks to those “who came from foreign” - Richard Figaro, Gerald Stewart, Dylan Marfan, Whitney Chin, Andrew Campbell and Richard Harris.

The night’s proceedings began with a prayer by Fr. Augustus and the singing of the College Song...the memories came flooding back complete with goose pimples.

The gathering was addressed by Mr. De Silva, who spoke on behalf of the teachers, Joel Latiff, Secretary of the Fatima Old Boys’ Association (FOBA), and Stephen Harris, who spoke on behalf of the Reunion

Organising committee, paying special tribute to Raymond Samms and Joseph Chin Cheong.

Hats off to Richard “Figgy” Figaro who did a splendid job as MC. It was “Figgy” who inspired the class to give a standing ovation to the teachers in recognition of the outstanding work they did in moulding us into the great people that we are today.

The treat of the night was a slide show, created by Marlon Hoo Fatt, of some old school photos (courtesy Alan Donawa, Stephen Broadbridge and Brendon Chow Lin On). What the hell was Antonio Davila trying to do with that contortionist act? The pictures from grad – they say fashion comes back eventually – not those outfits! And Raymond “Roving Ace” Samms...Magnum PI?

Following the group shots of the teachers and the Class of ’84, there was a raffle for two Fatima shirts which were won by Charles Pashley and Hayden Charles and signed by all present...a real collector’s item!

Colin Inniss as DJ and Alan Donawa on box bass with the parang band “Paranderos de UWI” provided entertainment for the night.

But the evening was not incident-free as Glenn Roach ex-tempoed a challenge to the Class of ’84 for a football match with the teachers. Wonder what will happen there...

football match

Well there we were all decked out in our Lucozade Sport T-shirts expecting to play the teachers and not one of them played! Instead, we played a past first XI team (Nicholas Goddard, Dwight Andrews, Dexter John and Ricky Waite to name a few) who played on behalf of the teachers – what a set up! We lost 4-1 but because of the misrepresentation, The TTFF has advised that the result of the match was null and void.

greatest memories from fatima

“The day all the guys chased me through the courtyard to dump me in the bin (I would have escaped if not for that Ravi Samaroo fella!)”

Ravi Samaroo

Placing first in Form 3 Group 4 (I'm still not sure how this was done!) and working the bar for Fatima's Mayfair

Darren Millien

Laughing when Ms. Chin put Scott Rodriguez out of Accounting class, thinking he was the one that was talking and imitating her, when in fact it was Yours Truly.

Andre Huggins

Beautiful teachers like Avril Coar, Jillian Daniel, Sherrie-Ann Gardener and Pat Clerk; giving out detention as a Prefect and just liming on the 6th Form Block talking non-sense!

Patrick Chinasing

Doing Sesame Street skits at Christmas – and the time we came back from 3-0 down against Lower Six, to win 6-3! Clairmonte Bourne rallied the team at half time and I was goalie for the second half.

Raymond Samms

The down-the-islands weekend retreat with Father Macky; playing football every Friday after school and jumping into the river to retrieve the ball; the escapades to that "centrally located place"; night study.

Martin Steele

Manchester United playing at Fatima grounds and Mr. Kuei Tung giving us two periods off to watch. Go Red Devils!

Brian Morris

Plumes of brown fumes in Mr. John's Chemistry class and of course Mr. Sunderji's reaction the day the chalk dropped from his hand during Math class and landed standing on end!

Azim Sunderji

Being turned away from entering the school by Mr. Sunderji after the Form Five last day festivities, because my shirt was ripped to shreds.

Richard Figaro

The day all the guys chased me through the courtyard to dump me in the bin (I would have escaped if not for that Ravi Samaroo fella!) and racing back to class after playing football during lunchtime and drying our shirts over the fans behind the Audio Visual Center.

Marlon Hoo Fatt

Cowboy X.

Robin Maharaj

Every day. It was worth it.

Stuart Gooding

Intercol. Of course, I didn't actually see much football because there were always so many nice "young ladies" to talk to!

Leyland Smith

Fifth and Sixth Form showdown: Warren Roberts returning from the field with no underwear, genitals painted black and Azim Sunderji, grey shirt shredded but walking tall!

Nigel Pantin

Tyrone Brown leading the troops into battle to retrieve a stolen cricket ball from students of a neighbouring school (yes, we got back the ball!); Mr. Niles falling off his chair during study period (yuh just had to be there); Mr. Pouchet putting me out of class because I said he had "antique glasses"; Ms. June Lendor banishing me from French because I said she looked more like March.

Roger-Mark De Souza

Ms. Humphrey admonishing our sluggishness during French class, which was held after lunch, by accusing us of having eaten too much "ground provision" for lunch;

breaking biche with Hayden Charles, Juan Cezar and others to go to Maracas (the only time, I swear!) and Father Girod organizing for us to meet with the girls from Bishops, and vehemently reminding us, "Boys, sex doesn't mean the same thing for girls..."

Brian Ho

George's delicious doubles, bomb scares and future lawyers (no names mentioned) stretching a two-minute discussion into a half-hour argument.

Dominic Rodriguez

The time Scotland was bowled in the goonies by Andrew Singh and it took him half an hour to crawl back from the field, across the road and into class.

Gerald Stewart

Small goal after school and watching Keith Scotland sneaking down doubles during class time.

Gregory Kirkpatrick

Keith Scotland, when asked to read his poem in Literature class, took advantage of his 'heightened' cerebral powers. He picked up a blank copybook, recited verse after verse, turned the page and continued for another minute or so. When asked to repeat the second stanza he went back to the first page without missing a beat. How humble he was in repetition!

Anston Rambarran

Class was in session when something was heard trickling onto the floor. It was revealed that Neil Prima had peed himself. When the teacher asked him if he wanted to go to the bathroom, he replied, "It's too late".

David Carew

Wayne Nakhid (non-cricketer, couldn't play sports at all) taking the best catch I've ever seen!

Richard Cedenio

Playing football and lightning struck – a branch hit the goal post and burnt Wendell Charles. What are the chances?

Stephen Harris

Actually seeing with my own eyes Burton's homework blown away by a whirlwind in the school courtyard, and the teachers of course not buying the excuse that "the wind blew away my homework..."; seeing the first sign's of Brian Lara's greatness when he dispatched star-bowler Anthony Nigel Joseph for "several" sixes and fours in one over to destroy us in the lunchtime cricket league.

Keith Chan

Alex McKenzie hopping onto a Cannings delivery truck on its way out of the school in order to skip Mr. Garcia's physics class.

Khalid Carmichael

The Las Cuevas camping trip; Nuts swearing to defend some girl's honor; somebody proclaiming to be the magic doctor; a man crowned the Panty man after mysteriously getting a swell lip; Barbarosa and Robain tying Django to the tree on the rock; Samms' close resemblance to Burton Hinds; Castro listening to the Pope's Easter address while his clothes were on fire.

Derek Daniel

Racing to the pavilion to playing sanco pedro with the Sanco syndicate.

thanks from fellas

As lost connections were re-established and new ones made, it would be great to get together more. I am delighted that we were able to come together and have a good time without feeling awkward. To the guys that didn't come, there will be other times to reacquaint. To the committee, many thanks for a job well done!

Winslow Douglas (AKA...Walter)

I must go on record to commend the committee, all who attended and even those who couldn't come, but gave your moral support. It was great to see everyone and relive the memories from all those pictures (I'm glad there were no incriminating ones!)

Huggy Bear

My heartfelt thanks to the whole steering committee and all others who were on the periphery helping to make this first Class of 1984 Reunion a success. I know it took a lot out from your busy schedules but at the end of the day the job was well done and much appreciated.

To those "foreign-nationals" who graced us with their presence...thanks for making the trek down. To all others who were in Trinidad but could not make it...you really missed a great weekend! Let us also think about the challenge put to us by Joel to join FOBA. We are all at that learned age where we can make valuable contributions to our Alma Mater.

Alan Donowa

It's amazing that it has been twenty years since we left. The recent reunion, which I almost did not make it to, was nothing less than incredible, bringing back many memories of classmates, teachers and the school. Strive on Fatima Boys, strive on!

Karim Rahaman

Words cannot express how much this 20-year reunion meant to me. Props to Stephen, Marlon, Derek, Raymond, Latiff, Joseph Chin and all those who sacrificed their time. I hold Fatima College close to my heart and I would like to repay the school for all the success I have gained as a result of the foundation that Fatima laid for me. I feel strongly that we 'old boys' can make a difference in the lives of the present and future students. Special thanks to Figgie for the entertaining MC job.

Dylan Marfan

Great job guys! Truly a display of excellence by dedicated Fatima Men.

Nigel Pantin

The memories from the lime and dinner shall be cherished forever. I'm back in the frozen Tundra but with a whole lot of warm memories. I miss the camaraderie already.

Richard Figaro

From what I can read, everyone had a brilliant time. Excellent job to all those who made the time to organize this event. Although I could not make it, I was there in spirit and treasure all the experiences I had back in the day, especially since they shaped me into who I am now.

Sheldon Millette

I am disappointed that I couldn't make it for the reunion, but as you know, Grenada has been hit hard by Hurricane Ivan and I'm involved in the rebuilding process. I wish everyone a truly great reunion and am looking forward to seeing all the pictures and getting everyone's contact information. No matter how far away I am, I still believe that Fatima College gave me the best days of my life – it is truly the best school in Trinidad.

Bobby Steele

A big 'well done' to the class of '84 and I hope that this reunion is a catalyst for networking and re-igniting old relationships.

Azim Sunderji

rest in peace

Chris Hay

(November 4th 1967 - December 18th 2003)

When Christopher Hay passed away suddenly in 2003, he left behind his fiancée, Frances Ackrill and a diverse array of very close friends.

He will be remembered as someone who would always be the first to lend a helping hand and will be missed dearly by all who knew him.

R.I.P. Chris

Dexter Brewster

(June 2nd 1967 - February 23rd 1997)

Police Constable Dexter Brewster was killed in a road accident on the Priority Bus Route, leaving to mourn his wife Cathy Ann and 2 year-old (at the time) daughter Shanice.

Dexter joined the Police Service on April 2nd, 1990 and was described by his colleagues as a young officer who was always willing to assist. He was buried under full military rites.

R.I.P. Dexter
